

Steven Wayne Cornman, Sr.

October 31, 1951 - February 26, 2017

Steven Wayne Cornman, Sr., 65, passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 26, 2017 in Edmonds, Washington. He was born on Halloween in 1951 to Clara June Harris and Donald Wayne Pilkington. He is survived by his son, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, and countless relatives and friends.

This world will dearly miss your signature smile, extraordinary courageousness, wisdom, and faith. We promise to savor every cup of coffee, take our vitamins, change the oil in our cars regularly, eat at buffets, and, most importantly, love and remember you always!

A time of gathering will be held on Saturday, March 18 from 11:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at McClendon Winters Funeral Home Chapel, 303 E. 7th Street, Okmulgee, OK 74447. A graveside service will follow at Odd Fellow Cemetery, 1/2 mile east off of Highway 52 on Ash Road, Morris, Oklahoma.

Wonderful pictures. He was such a big part of my younger life. I so wish I would have kept in touch more. Live you Steve, your cousin Pam.

“Some would see Steven as a gentle giant. For me, he was and always will be, my protective and loving big brother. He actually saved me from a stuck ferris wheel when I was young. He climbed out and down the supports from the top seat, and helped fix the problem. My hero! He was tall enough to put the angel on the Christmas tree, strong enough to pull me in a Radio Flyer red wagon, and sweet enough to hold my hand and kiss me good night.

Steven made going to Church and serving God a priority in his life. He looked forward to visiting with members...and rarely missed a church dinner. He spoke frequently of spending time at the senior center, checking on friends and volunteering around town. I would hear a smile in his voice when he talked about his son and a song in his heart when he spoke of his "lady friend".

His passion for classic country, gospel music and Elvis began at an early age. In the 60's we would watch shows like Hee Haw, Glen Campbell, even Lawrence Welk and Oral Roberts on our Granny's black and white TV. I used to think Steven invented those foiled antennas because he was always tinkering with something. Recently, he took music lessons and was learning to play the ukulele.

In the garden, I thought my brother was a master, but he never claimed to know much. He had great soil from good home composting and a healthy stock of worms, good for fishing too. Our texts usually included updates on the "maters" and photos of vegetables, flowers, and our recent hummingbird sightings.

There is so much more I could share here, but have only one regret; having never seen him square dance. Until that day, I will see you in the garden, Brother.

Our hearts are breaking with the void Steven has left. Over time, I know the tears will be replaced with smiles of the memories he has given each of us. We were truly blessed to have Steven in our lives and know we will all be together again someday.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the Cornman and Pilkington families. Steven and I met 9 yrs. ago. It's so hard to say goodbye to someone so special, and who was always there for me. I'll miss his smile, laugh, thoughtfulness and going to Lowe's after church on Sundays. He'll always be in my heart and I know he's dancing in heaven and singing in the angel's choir. I will miss you and never forget all our happy times.

“ Steve was a special person thru and thru. We were cousins and grew up together. So many special moments I can't even begin to tell of them. I just wish we would have stayed in contact more. Life gets in the way. He was very special to Dad and Mom. My heart aches for the family.
Soar high Steve, I will miss our little talks we use to have. Even when got back to talking in our emails, you had such wise words to impart.
Love you! 😊❤️

“ You have always had the kindest heart and soul your whole life.. You brought sunshine and laughter to us all.. Your grandparents (L.O. and Ruby Pilkington) thought the world of you!!!! I will always remember how much you loved being a Christian and your love of Elvis. Always enjoyed you saying "thank you, thank you very much" you sounded just like Elvis. Your Aunts Janice Pilkington Medlock and Betty Hamon loved our visits and will never forget that contagious smile. We will miss you !!!!!
