“ Dear Peggy,

I was so sorry to hear of your recent loss. There just don't seem to be the right words to offer at a time like this. I spoke with Mother last night after she got home from the visitation, and she said she had a nice visit with you and Patti. I think about all of our old friends from South Seminole Street and what good times we had growing up. Mother and I laughed about the infamous "Squirrels in the Attic" episode.

Know that you and the bous are in my thoughts and prayers. I know that one day you will be laugh and smile when you remember all of the wonderful times your family had together.

Love,

Mary K.##imported-begin##Mary K. Olzawski##imported-end##

“ Peggy- Please know I am praying for you and your family. It is difficult I know, wish I lived closer to visit. I have good memories of Steve from high school and remember our times (8th grade) competing against each other for first chair in band. He was always the best. As many have said, he always had a smile and a kind word for everyone. Again, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

God Bless you Peggy.
