

Sue Gleason

June 15, 1943 - June 7, 2024

Sue Gleason, 80, of Okmulgee Oklahoma passed into the arms of her Lord and Savior on Thursday , June 7, 2024.

A beloved wife and mother she was proceeded in death by her mother Maxine Julia Swearingen, two sons David Wesley Jones and Steve Boyd Johnston as well as her brother Jimmy DeWayne Whitman.

As the owner of Sue's Little Peso Mexican Restaurant she was well known throughout the Okmulgee area for her delicious authentic Mexican food and special white sauce.

She loved growing flowers in the yard, good movies, golden oldies music, getting to know people and making everyone laugh.

She is survived by her husband James (JR) Gleason and two sisters Charlotte Klutts and Julia Cole, along with Julia's husband Tom.

She will be missed by her extended family including Eva Gleason of Beggs, brother and sisters-in-law Mike and Claudia Lee, John and Gwen Dodd and Rex and Celia Gleason along with many nieces, nephews and friends.

A service to celebrate her life will be held 1:00 P.M., Tuesday, June 11, 2024 at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home Chapel in Okmulgee. A reception will follow in the McClendon-Winters Life Celebration Center. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to the First United Methodist Church Food Pantry, 302 S. Seminole, Okmulgee, OK 74447 or in care of the funeral home.

“ My husband and I spent at least one weekend night eating at Sue’s. It was a highlight for us. Good food, always friends to see and talking with Sue (J.R. too, if we were lucky.). I missed talking to Sue after she closed but was lucky enough to see her out and about occasionally.

J.R., Charlotte and family, you have my deepest sympathy. ❤️
