

Thomas Dean Shaver

October 20, 1955 - August 23, 2017

Chubby Dean Shaver born Thursday, October 20, 1955 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Chubby passed away on Wednesday, August 23, 2017 in Tulsa at the age of 61. As a young man Chub was known as an accomplished bull rider. He enjoyed participating in hundreds of rodeos across several states along with his brother Buddy and close friend Billy.

In 1974 Chub joined the Tulsa Local 592 Boiler Makers Union as a welder. He traveled across the country for several years until his retirement. He then worked with his son/ best friend/ welding partner Quinton Dean Shaver, and over the years gained the respected position of the father/ son welding team. Throughout these years of travels Chubs next favorite activity was storytelling, with so many adventures the humorous and sometimes tall tales were told and retold to audience after audience. Chub had a knack for capturing the humor and embellishing a story to reflect the personality that so many came to know fondly as Chub Shaver.

Chub thought of everyone as family or friend. He never had a negative thing to say about anyone young or old, wealthy or not, every person was equal in his eyes and he made everyone feel important and worthy. “Daddy, I just want you to know this...It has been my privilege and an honor to be able to take care of you these past few months and I sincerely hope that you know that I did it completely out of love and respect for you, never have I felt that you were a bother or trouble to me, I am blessed that you were able to be here these past few months. You are for ever the strongest toughest man that I have ever known. Your heart has always been good as gold and there is no one that I trusted more...I am going to miss you so very much Daddy, there is no replacing you and no forgetting you I could always no matter what count on you to do whatever was needing to be done to help me and anyone else in trouble, and it's only too bad that others are not able to lead by your example because this world would be so much of a better place if everyone was like you...rest in peace daddy and take a deep breath of that heavenly air and run like I know you want to you will never have to struggle again...love you forever Thelma Jane La-roy...Tj 🥹
