

Trenton Gene Brooks

June 17, 1959 - October 24, 2024

Trenton Gene Brooks entered Heaven on October 24th, 2024, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. He was born on June 17th, 1959, in Henryetta, Oklahoma to Claude and Bonnie (Wilson) Brooks.

After school, Trent spent his days at his grandmother Brooks house. He spent most of his summers at his grandparents, Sam and Mary Wilson's, farm in Last Chance, Oklahoma. He grew up riding horses and playing Cowboy and Indians with his brother, Stan and cousins Ronnie, Randy, Mike, and Terry. Trent graduated from Okmulgee High School in 1978. He worked in the Steel and Oilfield industry for most of his life. He worked for Baldwin Steel for 20 years, and then retired from Henryetta Oilfield Service and Supply. He was a proud member of the Teamster Union Workers.

Trent was an example of what it means to have a strong work ethic, leaving before sun-up and returning after sunset. Trent's positive and confident energy could be felt whenever he entered a room. He was a loyal man and would go to the ends of the earth for the things he believed in and those he loved.

Trent loved to spend time outdoors. He was an avid hunter and fisher. He spent most days restoring guns and taking things apart; anything that allowed him to work with his hands. When Trent was not occupied with the day to day, he would share his wealth of knowledge from historical documentaries and watching old westerns with his dog Ludo. He was dedicated to learning the word of the lord through weekly Bible studies with his wife and family members. Trent, most enjoyed, spending time with family, taking them camping, teaching them how to hunt, fish, shoot bows and guns, ride horses, and telling stories.

Trent and Lisa were married on May 13th, 2002, in Arkansas, blending their families. Trent was a great father and stepfather to all seven of the children.

Trent is preceded in death by his parents Bonnie and Claude Brooks, and a daughter Alyssa Wilbourn.

He is survived by his wife Lisa, children Jared, Trenton, Kristin and spouse Ben, MacKenzie, Wyatt and spouse Jamie, and Morgan; he is also survived by six grandchildren Wyatt, Makenzie, Jaidence, Ashton, Adalen, and Zachary; as well as brother, Stan Brooks, Aunt Charlotte, first wife Delma, his many cousins, and a host of add-ons to the family. He will be greatly missed by his loved ones and friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held 2:00 PM Friday, November 8, 2024 PM at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will follow at the Morgan Family Cemetery.
