“ I met Vic probably about a year ago. He came into my place of work and asked me for some assistance which I was more than happy to provide. We talked and talked and he was just the sweetest guy ever, he quickly became my favorite customer. One day months later he came in and saw me and said “hey!! you’re just the person i was looking for!! i was hoping you were here today, now don’t go too far okay? i’m sure i’ll need your help at some point!” and it just made my day knowing that he’d come in there hoping to see Me. my last conversation with him went something like this “hey vic! my birthday is next week are you going to come in and see me?” “oh happy early birthday kiddo! i sure will try to come see ya, but i may forget okay? don’t be too mad at me if i do.” “oh i could never be mad at you!!” “okay kiddo well i have to get going but happy birthday!!!” “okay bye mr vic!!! hope to see you soon!” that was back in june, i sure do miss seeing him. he was such a kind soul i will remember him forever. sending so much love to his beautiful family that he always talked so highly of.

“ Our beautiful precious wonderful Glenda and handsome sons and incredible families. Oh how we love you all. Vic was such a friendly and genuinely caring person. I fell in love with him the first time we met. I only had a very small picture of me and my mother. He enlarged it and put it in a beautiful frame for me. What a treasure to this day. You both always made me welcome in your home no matter what time of day or night. We have shared many wonderful times working together at Green Country Technology Center for twenty plus years. Our summer conferences were always so exciting and you took us to so many amazing eating places. You and Vic had a beautiful 50th wedding anniversary celebration and thank you for including us. We love your sons and their families. What a blessing to have known and loved Vic. We love you dearly sweetheart. We are praying for each of you. God bless. Carrol H.
