

Virginia Marie Creason

September 13, 1940 - May 26, 2021

Virginia Marie Creason was born in Okmulgee, OK to Willie Adonia and Harmon Zale Wilson on September 13, 1940. She was the baby of 5 children, and she made sure she was spoiled by all. Virginia left this world on May 26, 2021, in Weleetka, OK where she was surrounded by loved ones.

Virginia attended school in California and Beggs, OK. She graduated from Beggs, OK in 1958. In true selfless Virginia fashion, she turned down a nursing scholarship to go to work and support her momma.

She met her soulmate, Ricky Dennis Creason and they were married on August 27, 1961 in Heavner, OK. They made their home in Okmulgee where they grew their family by 3 children. Rick and Virginia would have been married 60 years in August.

Virginia worked at Montgomery Ward, Newberry's, 1st National Bank and made a 30 plus year career at the Dept. of Human Services. Virginia was the only supervisor in the State of Oklahoma that did not have a college degree and she was awarded this because of her hard work and dedication. She met many people and made many friends there.

She was preceeded in death by her parents Willie Adonia and Harmon Zale Wilson, Charlie McBroom and wife Mary, Myrtle Jones and Charles, Katherine Adams, Garrett Gasaway , and Louise Roberson. She was met in Heaven by her in-laws Troy and Stella Creason and a very special sister-in-law Rosalie Creason. Virginia was most excited to go to Heaven so she could finally cuddle baby boy, Troy Dennis Creason.

Virginia is outlived by her husband Rick Creason, her children and their spouses Ted and Nina Creason and Kim and Jerry Williamson.

Her beloved grandchildren are Paige and Sidney Gaston, Matt Creason, Kimber and Ethan Sanderson, Kylie Williamson, Katelyn Williamson, and Autumn and Caleb Wittman. She also had bonus grandchildren, Chad and Andrea Polson, Ashley and Kenny Robertson and Alex Proctor.

Virginia had great grandchildren, Kamryn Williamson, Karsyn Groomer, Beau Gaston, Lincoln Wittman, Grady Wittman and Jayce Sanderson. Because she was such a good mama, God awarded her with several bonus great grandchildren. She was blessed with several special nieces and nephews Teresa Adams, Jim and Ann Bingman and Jim Jones. Several special friends Cheryl and Jimmy Hurst and Jon and Tracy Keim.

Her pride and joy were her beloved Boston Terrier puppies Cena, and Ambrose.

“ I have been good friends with this family for many, many years, and me and Rick used to play touch football every Sunday afternoon with a group from church. I hired Virginia to work with DHS. Lots of good memories from "olden" days. The family is in our prayers.

“ I was given the honor of working with VC for many years and she also served as my supervisor for some time. I would give her grief after her retirement over writing every month on my monthly conference that I talked too much after 4:30. We had lots of laughs, shared our family needs and prayer request many times. Loved this lady and she will definitely be missed. Prayers for family and close friends that loved her so.
