I'm sorry to learn about Virginia's passing. I have known her and her family all my life. El and Cille lived across the street from were i was raised by my Granny, on South Florida. El gave my daughter her first puppy, a little Wiener dog, named Sam. She will be missed by all who knew her, RIP Virginia.

“ Our family loved Virginia. We enjoyed worshipping with her on Sunday's. We also had fun times at our home for meals and game playing with her. She always surprised me with her great memory of the years of early history of the Okmulgee area. She spoke of the many places she had worked. May God's arms of love and peace surround her dear family and friends. Virginia trusted in her salvation in Jesus Christ and rests in his presence eternally. Love and Hugs
