

Wanda J. Rogers

July 24, 1927 - November 2, 2014

Wanda Jean Rogers, 87, passed away Sunday, November 2, 2014. She was born July 24, 1927 in Chickasha, Oklahoma to the late Harley Alvin and Ollie Oletha (Strailey) Westmoreland. Wanda lived in Tulsa for many years and worked as a beautician in her younger years and later at Zebco until retirement. She moved to Okmulgee County in 2010 to be closer to her family. She enjoyed square dancing and raising flowers, but most of all, she loved being with her family and was active in her nieces and nephews lives. Wanda was a member of the Christian Church in Tulsa but after relocating she attended the First Baptist Church of Dewar. She was preceded in death by her parents, first husband, Owen Cohea, second husband, Martin Rogers, and four brothers, Charles Westmoreland, Harold Westmoreland, Chalmer Westmoreland and Dee Arthur Westmoreland. Survivors include her sister-in-law, Doris Westmoreland, of the home, nieces and nephews, Rendie Wilbourn and husband R.L. of Henryetta, Kevin Charles Westmoreland and wife Christy of Dewar, Wanda Sue Brown and husband Dodd of Schulter, Phillip Brian Westmoreland and wife Millicent of Schulter, Rick Day and wife Lynn of Edmond, Carol Westmoreland of Houston, Glenn Westmoreland and wife Yvette of Mesa, Arizona, and Lon Rogers and wife Louise of Tulsa and numerous great and great great nieces and nephews she loved dearly.

A Service to Celebrate Wanda's Life will be held 2:00 P.M. Friday, November 7, 2014 at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home Chapel in Okmulgee with Reverend Ryan Wells officiating.

“ I just learned of Wanda's passing. She was a great influence in my life as a child. I often think of waiting on the steps for her to get home so that we could go to the farm to see Rendi and Kevin. All the hours just talking and feeling so special. Wanda helped me grow up.
