“ Jack and Bobbi there aren't any words to tell you both how sorry I am for the loss of Zandra. She turned out to be a beautiful woman inside and out. She believed in God so you know she is walking with Jesus. Zachary, I know you're going to miss your sister, I don't know how your walk with God is but my prayer for you is to accept the Lord into your heart and be able to see Zandra again some day. My thoughts, love and prayers are with all of you...Aunt Lorie 🙏❤️🙏

“ I met Zandra several times over the years when visiting family in Oklahoma. I was amazed at what a delight she was. In spite of her many difficulties she was spunky and cheerful. My condolences to her family and friends. I know she will be missed.

“ Clara Fisher and all those who mourn Zandra's passing, I did not know Zandra had passed; but, I was thinking of her over the weekend. I was looking at some tambourines Zandra had made for my great-granchildren in Sunday School. I remember that she told me how they could decorate them, and bring them back to church when they came. Though I was never around her, I could tell that she was a special young lady who cared for others; even little children..
